

Objectives:

Upon completion of this section, the student will be able to

- Cite organic and inorganic compounds
- Know examples, caloric value, and function of carbohydrates, proteins, and fats
- Determine the constructive factors of food
- Differentiate and critique the different diets
- Understand food labels
- Recognize obesity and anorexia as medical problems.